AYP Reporting Requirements

- NCLB legislation requires that all public districts and schools report annually to the IDE on the progress of all their students.
 - All AYP judgments are made annually using achievement and participation data from grades 3 thru 8 and 11
 - AYP judgments also include the other academic indicators of graduation rate and K-8 attendance rate.
- A decorative blue wave graphic with multiple layers of varying shades of blue, curving upwards from the bottom left and across the bottom of the slide.

AYP Reporting Requirements

- The IDE is required to notify districts and schools if they do not meet AYP annual targets
- The IDE will use both the status and growth models to determine AYP calculations

AYP Reminders

- The IDE will continue with the collection of testing accommodations for ELL students
 - Students who reside and attend a public school that is under the jurisdiction of a local school board will be included in that ATTENDING school district AYP determination for both achievement and participation if they meet the Full Academic Year (FAY) requirement.
